

Quinnipiac University invites you to

DRUIDMURPHY

at

LINCOLN CENTER FESTIVAL

DruidMurphy — Plays by Tom Murphy

Crossing oceans and spanning decades, DruidMurphy covers the period from The Great Hunger of the 19th century to the ‘new’ Ireland of the 70s through three of the greatest plays of Tom Murphy: Conversations on a Homecoming, A Whistle in the Dark and Famine.

DruidMurphy is a major celebration of one of Ireland’s most respected living dramatists and is presented in a co-production with Quinnipiac University, NUI Galway, Lincoln Center Festival and Galway Arts Festival.

Druid Theatre Company

Multi-award winning and internationally known, Druid was co-founded in Galway in 1975, the first professional theatre company in Ireland to be based outside Dublin by Garry Hynes, the first woman to be honored with a Tony Award for direction. The company tours Ireland and key global centers, reinvigorating perceptions of classic Irish plays and engaging with new dramatic works of a challenging, innovative and daring kind.

Ireland’s Great Hunger Museum at Quinnipiac University

Opening in September 2012, Ireland’s Great Hunger Museum is home to the world’s largest collection of visual art, artifacts and printed materials relating to the starvation and forced emigration that occurred throughout Ireland from 1845 to 1850. The museum will preserve, build, and present its art collection in order to stimulate reflection, inspire imagination and advance awareness of the Famine and its long afterlife in Ireland’s cultural memory.

QUINNIPIAC UNIVERSITY

cordially invites you to a very special performance of FAMINE

by
Ireland's preeminent dramatist
TOM MURPHY

LINCOLN CENTER FESTIVAL
THURSDAY, JULY 12, 2012

5:00 PM

Cocktails and Pre-Theater Dinner
Faculty Dining Suite, 2nd Floor, Tower

7:00 PM

Druid production of FAMINE by Tom Murphy
Gerald W. Lynch Theater, Ground floor

JOHN JAY COLLEGE TOWER

860 11th Avenue (at W 58th Street)
New York City

Cocktail attire

This invitation is non-transferrable without notification.

Kindly rsvp by June 29th to Karla Natale at 203.582.5369 or email karla.natale@quinnipiac.edu

QUINNIPIAC
UNIVERSITY

275 Mount Carmel Avenue, Hamden, CT 06518
Tel: 212.725.2993 Fax: (212) 244-3344